DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

I. Group I, claim(s) 1-9 and 16, drawn to a mixture of isolated or synthetic affinity molecules.

II. Group II, claim(s) 10-15, drawn to use of a mixture.

The inventions listed as Groups I-II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack a special technical feature that define a contribution over the prior art, for the following reason.

Groups I and II are linked by the limitation in claim 1 calling for [m]ixture of isolated or synthetic affinity molecules in a liquid carrier comprising at least two different affinity molecules, each with affinity for a predetermined analyte. In construing claim 1, the recitation for use in a single or multi flow cell piezoelectric crystal micro balance apparatus is considered to be an intended use limitation that, in this particular case, is an application of the mixture and does not exclusively bind the mixture to the recited apparatus. Accordingly, the only common feature linking Groups I and II is the aforementioned limitation, as claimed. This technical feature, however, is not a “special technical feature” that defines a contribution over the prior art, as set forth in PCT Rule 132. Indeed, Brosnan et al. (US 4,987,086) ("Brosnan") teaches a kit comprising vials holding multiple antibodies. See column 8, lines 29-34. Consequently, although Groups I and II have a common technical feature, unity of invention is lacking since the common technical feature is not a special technical feature. Applicants, therefore, are respectfully requested to elect either Group I or Group II.

2. Species election is required for Group I

If Applicants elect Group I, the following species election is required since the elected claims are directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

Applicants are requested to elect one type of analyte (i.e., elect one of the three) from the list below:

1. Narcotics (claim 6)
2. Explosives (claim 7)
3. Biomolecules, microorganisms and parts thereof (claims 8-9)

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the different types of analytes listed above have different structural compositions that, together, lack a common technical feature.

3. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
